he was a red faced compere hasty of speech and of gesture his round full rubicund face exhaled health and good humor his little round gray eyes had a slightly mischievous expression his chin was beginning to become double and his hair to turn gray but master bugonnet worried little about that so long as his place was well patronized whether it was resorted to by cavaliers bachelors esquires courtiers people from the city or even from the country mattered little to him if the customers paid promptly for after a profitable day the bath keeper rarely failed to go to the nearest wine shop to regale and enjoy himself whence he commonly returned home tipsy he called it having a little point
